"OUR BOARDING HOUSE." - Loopard "Our Boarding House." — Loonard Grover's company produced this excellent comedy at the Opera House, Saturday afternoon and evening, to a rather poor business. "Our Boarding House" is full of healthy, honest mirth, which never descends to vulgarity, and is never tiresome. It portrays the eccentricities of the heterogeneous collection of humanity which congregates about the average boarding house table, with just enough exagoration. congregates about the average boarding house table, with just enough exaggeration to make the picture entertaining, the sombre background of inevitable unhappiness being only sufficiently apparent to heighten the effect. The presentation of the piece by Mr. Grover's company was not so satisfactory as upon their first visit here, several changes having been made in the cast, and two characters dropped out entirely. As a consequence they failed to raise any enthusiasm in their audiences.

Euloy Life,

What a truly beautiful world we live in!

Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint is the direct cause of seventy-live per cent of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Haadache, Costiveness, Nervous Prost, ation, Dizziness of the Head, Talpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles 10 cents. Try it.

RHUDNAT.SM and Neuralgia are without doubt the most intractable diseases with which medical men have to contend, and the usual methods of treating them by oily liniments have utterly failed. The nerves of the body have to be reached by some powerful remedy before a cure can be effected. As a nerve tonic we know of nothing which enjoys such a deserved reputation as "Lawson's Curative." It searches out the diseased and infalmed tresues and nerves, soothing the pain by reducing the inflammation and bringing them back to their normal and healthy state. All we ask is a trial of the Curative for the many diseases which we know it to be a specific for, and the most skeptical will be convinced we have not over-estimated its value.
